THINK LOCAL FIRST

Shop Locally • Dine Tastefully • Explore Widely

Welcome to the latest edition of the Andover Township Buy Local Guide, brought to you by the Sustainable Andover Committee

Through a variety of endeavors, including producing this guide, our all-volunteer committee works hard to make our town as vibrant and sustainable as possible.

Perhaps the clearest measure of a town's success is a thriving, diversified economic base. Andover Township boasts more than 100 locally owned businesses that offer a broad array of goods and services to accommodate the needs and desires of residents and visitors alike. Whether you're looking for the perfect bagel, a special bottle of celebratory wine, or a deep tissue massage, you'll find it here.

And the best part? Every dollar spent here in Andover Township can:

- Lead to meaningful employment for people of all ages
- Foster creative expression from local artisans
- Expand the array of healing practices for mind, body, and soul
- Keep farmers on the land that makes Andover green

The Sustainable Andover Committee includes Ellsworth Bensley, Jr., Albert Bills, Jane Byron, Eric Derby, Karl Halteman, Justin Iazzetti, Janis McGovern, and Eric Olsen.

Why Buy Local?

Buying locally not only fosters a community's economic dreams, it also helps support our ecological goals. When you drive two miles instead of 20, you reduce your carbon footprint.

As you thumb through this guide, we hope you'll be inspired to find the perfect gift for someone special or a way to treat yourself.

When you buy local, you support local farmers and producers, which may prevent beautiful farmland from being sold to developers.

When food is made on a massive scale, it can lose that personal touch — and sometimes, that freshness too. Buying from small makers or your local farmers market means your food is handled with care, made in smaller batches, and often reaches you just days (or even hours) after it's made. It's not just fresher and safer — it feels good knowing exactly who you're supporting with every bite.

Sustainable Agriculture Enterprises (SAgE)

“SAgE is an innovative farm project of the Foodshed Alliance, which provides affordable land access to local farmers. All of our farmers adhere to National Organic Practices, and many also use regenerative practices that restore and improve soil health, biodiversity, and the overall ecosystem.

GLOBAL IMPACT OF BUYING LOCAL

- When consumers and businesses choose to spend their money with locally owned companies, that money is more likely to stay within the community. This “economic multiplier effect” helps ensure that our spending circulates throughout the local economy.
- Long-distance transportation of goods—especially food—relies heavily on fossil fuels. Buying local shortens the “food mile” distance, which significantly cuts down on harmful emissions.
