

Plastic bags in your curbside recycling bin actually hinder the recycling process. It's not that used plastic bags and wraps can't be recycled into new materials - they simply require a different collection system. So please don't put plastic bags and wraps in your curbside bin, bring them to the grocery store; they accept clean and dry plastic bags and film.

